Dear Dr. Danto:

I have been asked to reply to your letter of November 16 addressed to Assistant Secretary Kempton B. Jenkins requesting information concerning former Uruguayan Senator Errro.

I am pleased to report that our Embassy in Buenos Aires was informed by the Foreign Ministry on November 12 that the Executive had signed a decree ordering the Senator's expulsion. We understand he will be going to France.

With respect to the possibility that the Senator might have been involved in terrorism, this is something which we cannot judge one way or another. His expected release by the Argentine Government as well as Amnesty's espousal of his case argue in the Senator's favor but we frankly cannot reach any conclusions.

We appreciated your kind remarks. Now and then we are able to come up with a little encouraging information.

I hope this is helpful.

Sincerely,

W. Zimmermann
